Michael Brown: How to Climb Everest, Camera in Hand

Cultural Weekly · Thursday, July 19th, 2012

Dream of shooting a jaw-dropping movie? Want to climb Mt. Everest?

Now, what about doing them both at the same time?

On August 2, award-winning adventure filmmaker Michael Brown will share his secrets in a special event teleseminar – including how he climbed Mt. Everest five times with cameras rolling, including the first HD camera to the summit.

Here's a short video of Michael at work.
