Black & White & Noir

Alexis Rhone Fancher · Wednesday, May 13th, 2015

I confess! Although I often shoot in color, I prefer to photograph the world in black & white. And Los Angeles lends herself to this on a par (IMHO) only with NYC, Paris, and Rome (most other cities being solidly in the color camp). Here's what I see, when I really see L.A.

Ludlow – Lunch Like Hopper

Lone Man Boardwalk Venice

Noirist

Shoes on a Wire in Venice

Midnight Midtown

Tattooed Head in Line at Rite Aid

Texting DTLA

Reading Zadie Smith on the Metro

Homeless Man, Dancing DTLA

Superman asleep on the Metro

LA Metro Beauties

Shop Window on W. 6th St. DTLA

5th and Los Angeles St. DTLA
