Artplayer.tv The Bus Station Sonata

Cultural Weekly · Thursday, October 25th, 2012

In Newcastle, England's Haymarket Bus Station, a man in formal attire sat at a grand piano and asked commuters to play a note, just one note, for a Beethoven sonata. Many had not touched a piano before. You'll be touched by this video of what happened.

This video is co-produced by Artplayer.tv, a new UK showcase for the best video content from UK arts organizations. Look for our interview about Artplayer.tv in a forthcoming edition. You can also read their behind-the-scenes interview about this video here.
