CreatorUp! Sponsors Film Fest — Enter Now

Cultural Weekly · Thursday, November 1st, 2012

CreatorUp!, a new start-up devoted to teaching you how to create your next project, is sponsoring the Unofficial Google+ Film Festival — now accepting short film submissions between 15 seconds and 25 minutes in length.

Films selected by the festival will be judged by high profile industry talent, and will be seen by a potential audience of thousands all around the world. Here's more information, and where to submit. The regular deadline is November 2, and the late deadline is November 9, 2012.

Here's one of the video blocks from last year's festival. While you're at it, sign up for the CreatorUp! newsletter, so you're in the know when they launch.
