George Lucas's First Narrative Film

Cultural Daily · Wednesday, May 15th, 2013

 Long before Star Wars, when George Lucas was a student at USC, he made this short entitled Freiheit (Freedom). It was 1966, and Lucas was 22 years old. In this film you can see touches of inspiration — vibrant editing plus a mixture of live-action and stills — and you'll also spot classmate Randal Kleiser, who later went on to direct Grease, among other films.
