In The Elevator

Alexis Rhone Fancher · Wednesday, September 14th, 2016

I've a fascination with people's body language in small places, especially in and around elevators. The elevator in my DTLA building is no exception. These are recent shots.

“I will ride no elevator before its time”

Are we home yet?

Turn it this way and it disappears

What a coincidence, I'm going up too.

Why don't cell phones ever work in elevators?

This is the slowest elevator I have ever been on

Which floor is the party on?

Did I lock my car?
