Off-Leash in Long Beach

Rick Meghiddo · Wednesday, July 3rd, 2019

This short documentary, Off-Leash in Long Beach, is a vignette of the city's Rosie's Dog Beach. It is also a metaphor for human needs to meet and mix in a natural setting.

"Spaces for People" is defined not only by buildings but also by public places such as streets, beaches, and mountain trails. In this sense, Rosie's Dog Beach sends a powerful message to city planners and decision-makers on how to enrich the urban environment.
