Philadelphia Orchestra Plays on Stranded Plane

Adam · Thursday, June 13th, 2013

Maybe Dvořák is the answer to air travel nightmares.

When a group from The Philadelphia Orchestra found itself delayed on the tarmac for three hours waiting for their flight from Beijing to Macao as part of the 2013 Residency & Fortieth Anniversary Tour of China, a quartet of musicians decided to provide a “pop up” performance for the passengers.

Juliette Kang, violin

Daniel Han, violin

Che-Hung Chen, viola

Yumi Kendall, cello
