The Best Year of Her Life

When my two-year-old daughter sees someone come through the door whom she loves, and hasn't seen for a while, and has been anticipating she literally shrieks with joy. I have to go into the other room so that no one will notice the tears in my eyes. Later, after my daughter has gone to bed, I say to my wife, "She will never be this happy again," and my wife gets angry and snaps, "Don't you dare communicate your negativism to her!" And, of course, I won't if I can possibly help it, and, of course, I fully expect her to have much joy in her life, and, of course, I hope to be able to contribute to that joy-I hope, in other words, that she'll always be happy to see me come through the doorbut why kid ourselves-she, like every child, has a life of great suffering ahead of her, and while joy will not go out of her life, she will one of these days cease to actually,
