Word Crooners to Set Sotambe Poetry Café Ablaze

Mbizo Chirasha · Wednesday, August 28th, 2019

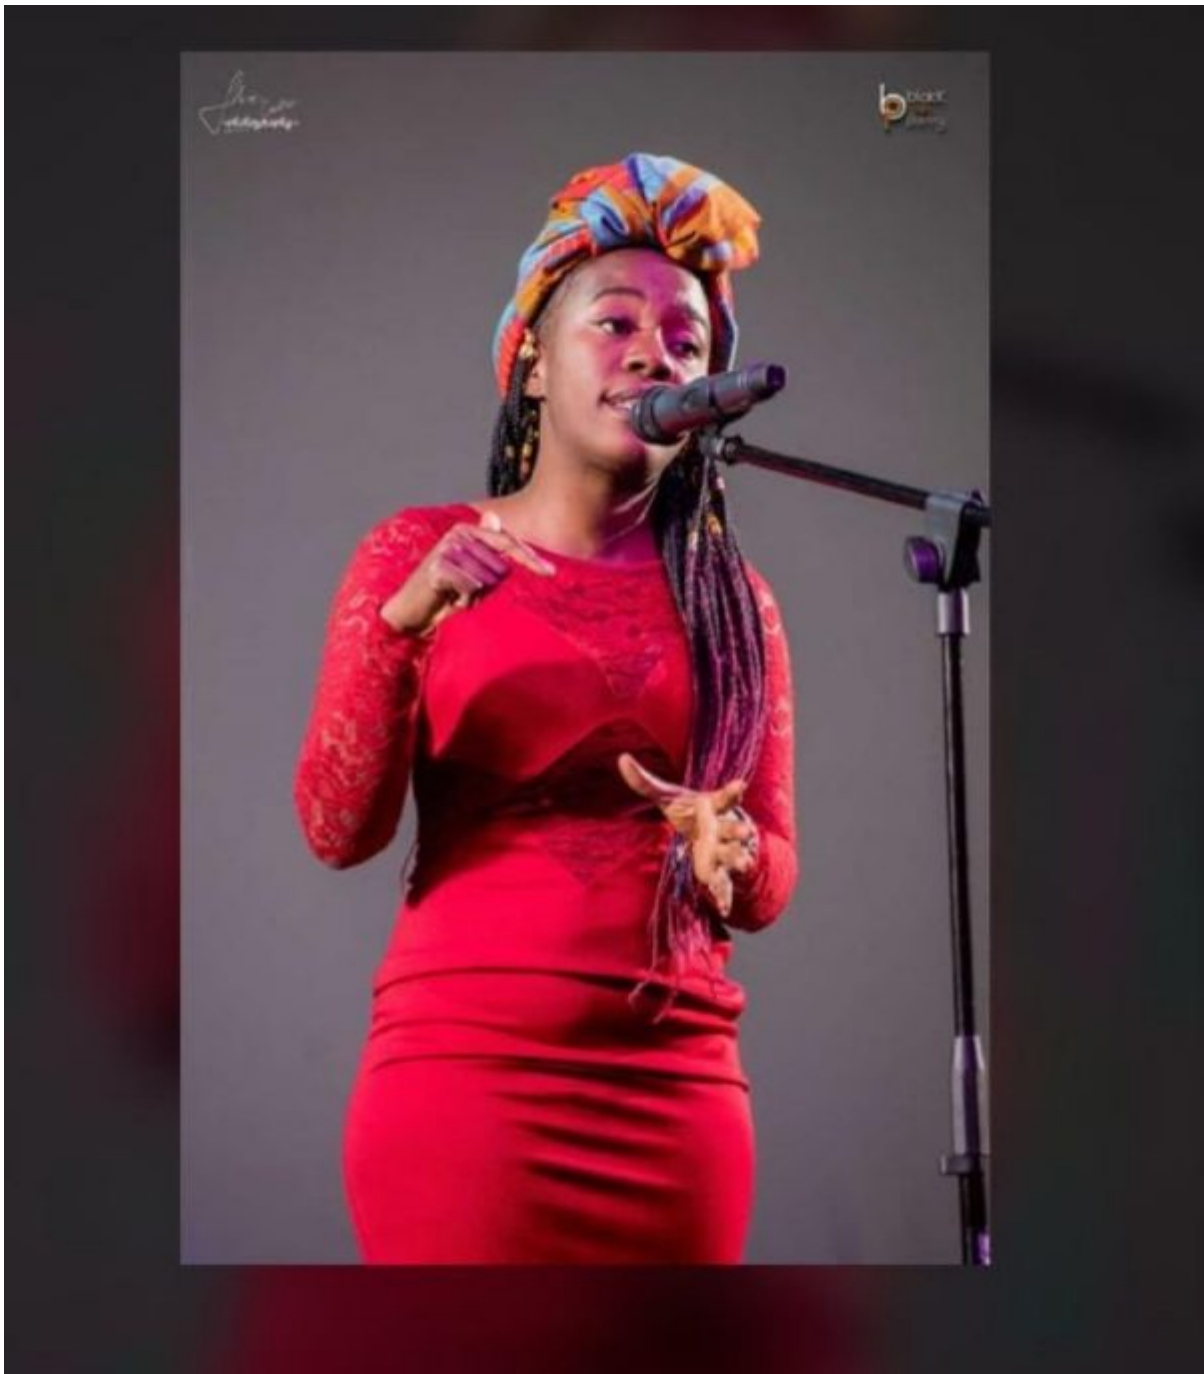

As August removes its wind-torn monkey hat and the September sun winks glowingly into the Copper blessed earth of Kitwe, a battalion of traditional griots, poets for human rights, word slingers and pen wielders from Botswana, Zambia and Zimbabwe gather in Kitwe, Zambia at the Live Literature Hub or simply the Sotambe Poetry Café, a fringe word fiesta slated by the organizers for the 6TH Sotambe International Festival of Film, Documentary and Arts. The Poetry Café is headlined by trailblazing words slingers, Lusaka's Poetic Queen Vanessa Chisakaula aka VAN VAN has done invitational performances for Action Aid, Center for Trade Policy & Development Zambia and Hivo's Southern Africa. She has also scintillated audiences at the Annual Anti-Drug Day 2018 and is the Founder and Curator of Word Smash Poetry.

Lame Pusetso aka Poetic Blood from Botswana

Botswana's Poetic Blood Lame Pusetso is the brains behind Dare to Fly, a School Spoken Word

Movement offering writing & performance clinics & poetry slam contests in which prizes and poetry anthologies add a gleam to the eye of every beholder.

Kitwe poet Versifier Mwenya Makupe

Kitwe's trendsetting Versifier Mwenya Makupe, an Ardent Poet/Rapper, loves to read and follow pop culture, but clings to elderly people so as to have a sort of bridge that joins both worlds through poetry and intensive interaction. Zimbabwe's top drawer spoken word artist Philani Amadeus Nyoni PAN contributed to the Caine Prize for African Writing anthology and remains the only poet to ever receive National Arts Merit Awards for Literature and Spoken Word along with a World Record for The Most Shakespearean Sonnets in a Manuscript since the age of twenty-six.

The talent sizzling griots lineup includes Zimbabwe's Robson Isaac Shoes Lambada, Tinotenda

Waison Wilson, Zambia's Gerry Sikazwe, Livingstone's Milimo Chinimbwa, Ndola's Benedixio Moore Khoti, Kitwe's Mwanangwa Zombe, Lydia Mtonga aka Mutinti, Mbwangi Mwenya, and Botswana's Gorata Mighty Tshwabi and Poet Phodiso Modirwa.
