Yifan Zhang: “Critique of the Banking Concept of Education”

Yifan Zhang · Wednesday, May 5th, 2021

"The more students work at storing the deposits entrusted to them, the less they develop the critical conciseness which would result from their intervention in the world as transformers of that world"

Paulo Freire

The inspiration of this short comic is from Paulo Freire's Banking Concept of Education. I find myself relating to this topic because I am from a country where a good career is determined by only good grades in school. In order to achieve that mentality, lots of young creative artists who want to pursuing a career in art the arts have to give up on their dream. I wanted to create this comic piece to express my opinion on Banking Concept of Education. — Yifan Zhang
